JANET LOUISE ANDERSEN
MINNESOTA'S 12TH CONFIRMED
VICTIM OF INTIMATE PARTNER
HOMICIDE IN 2024

Janet Louise Andersen, 82, was stabbed and killed in her home in Annandale on September 12, 2024. Rodney Andersen, 85, Janet's husband, is charged with 2nd-degree intentional homicide. Janet and Rodney Andersen were married for 65 years. Police were called to the home the morning of the 12th, where they found Janet's body with several wounds to her abdomen. Rodney Andersen told police they "continuously argued" throughout their marriage and that they had "a big argument" starting around 7am that morning, during which he grabbed a knife in the kitchen and stabbed Janet before calling 911. We remember Janet Louise Andersen.
